Front-End Developer based in Chicago IL. I work with React and I'm passionate about responsiveness and web accessibility. I graduated in Economics and worked as a financial analyst and also as a translator before finding my passion in software development. I'm currently being mentored by Senior Developer Farzad YousefZadeh (Epic Games).

PROJECTS

JOBS 4 JUNIORS (WORK IN PROGRESS)

Jobs 4 Juniors fetches jobs from We Work Remotely and shows only those suitable for entry level and intermediate developers. Next steps: improving accessibility and implementing pagination and other quality of life features.

REACT SKILL CALCULATOR

React Skill Calculator is something I wish existed when I first started coding. With RSC, I aim to help beginners determine what they need to learn before working with React. The website is responsive and accessible for visually impaired keyboard users.
